Meet the Artists

Vincent J. Lioni has been a member of the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra since 1987. From 1983 to 1987, he was a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and performed with the New York Philharmonic from 1981 to 1983. He was principal violist with the Santa Fe Opera in the summer of 1991 and guest principal violist of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra in October 1991. He also has been a member of the Casals Festival Orchestra, the Lyric Chamber Ensemble, the Renaissance City Chamber Ensemble, and the Renaissance City Chamber Players. Mr. Lioni holds bachelor of music and master of music degrees from The Juilliard School, where he was principal violist of each of the school's three orchestras and teaching assistant to William Lincer. In the spring of 1993, Mr. Lioni was appointed conductor and musical director of the Westchester Junior String Orchestra.

Considered one of America's foremost youth orchestras, the Westchester Youth Symphony is composed of over 130 high school-age instrumentalists chosen by competitive audition each year. The Orchestra has performed throughout the United States and Canada in its 40-year history, including Carnegie Hall, Alice Tully Hall, and as New York State's official musical representative at the 1976 Bicentennial Celebration in Philadelphia.

PROGRAM

Jacqueline Stern has been working with young musicians as a conductor, cello instructor, and chamber music coach. Presently, she conducts the orchestras at the Green Meadow Waldorf School. She was the associate director of the Suzuki program at Queensborough Community College (1989-93). She is a performing cellist with the Hudson String Quartet, and has worked with groups that include the Stamford Symphony, the Artek Ensemble, the New York City Opera, the Holy Trinity Bach Orchestra, and the Washington Bach Consort. Ms. Stern has a music education degree from Ithaca College and a master's degree in performance from the Manhattan School of Music.

Since 1953, the Westchester Junior Symphony Orchestra has been a pioneering organization in music education. The Orchestra was among the first hosts of the Suzuki Talent Education tours in the early 1960s, and has given hundreds of concerts for children through its own annual tours. Recent years have seen concerts at MENC East Division Conferences, NYSSMA State Conferences, scores of colleges and conservatories, Alice Tully Hall, the Kennedy Center, and Carnegie Hall.

Bernard Klinger is a graduate of Hartt College of Music with bachelors degrees in viola performance and in music education. He received an M.A. degree in music education from Columbia University-Teachers College. Mr. Klinger teaches elementary strings and orchestra in the Chappaqua Central Schools, a position he has held since 1979. Previously, he taught music in the White Plains Schools for seven years. He was principal violist in the Ridgefield (Connecticut) Symphony, and currently plays viola in the Greenwich Symphony, the Chappaqua Orchestra, and the Camerata, which performs at Westchester Community College under C. Victor Lioni. An active member of the Westchester County School Music Association (WCSMA), he has served as Elementary Festival Coordinator, orchestra chairman, and in 1991 was the conductor of the Elementary Orchestra. Currently, he is serving as president of WCSMA. Active in the Greater Westchester Youth Orchestras Association, Mr. Klinger has been Vice President of the Board of Directors, led sectional rehearsals, judged concerto competitions, and served as substitute conductor of the Elementary and Junior Strings.

The Westchester Elementary String Orchestra (WESO) is the most recent addition to the comprehensive music program provided by GWYOA. Founded in 1983, it provides a unique opportunity for young string players in grades four through six to begin their orchestral training. The WESO presents concerts each year in area schools, and performs at the winter and spring concerts of the GWYOA.
