About the Conductors

Bernard Klinger is a graduate of Hartt College of Music, where he received Bachelors degrees in Viola performance and Music Education. He received an M.A. in Music Education from Teachers College, Columbia University. Mr. Klinger teaches elementary strings and orchestra in the Chappaqua Central Schools, a position he has held since 1979. Previously he taught music in the White Plains Schools for seven years. He was principal violist in the Ridgefield, Ct. Symphony, and currently plays viola in the Greenwich Symphony. A past president of the Westchester County School Music Association (WCSMA), he has also served as Elementary Festival Coordinator, orchestra chairmen, and in 1981 was the conductor of the Elementary Orchestra.

Jacqueline Stern has a music education degree from Ithaca College and a Masters degree in performance from the Manhattan School of Music. She has been working with young musicians as a conductor, cello instructor and chamber music coach. Presently, she conducts the orchestra at the Green Meadow Waldorf School. Ms. Stern was the associate director of the Suzuki program at Queensborough Community College from 1989-1993. She is a performing cellist with the Hudson String Quartet and has worked with groups that include the Stamford Symphony, the Artek Ensemble, the New York City Opera, the Holy Trinity Bach Orchestra and the Washington Bach Consort.

Vincent J. Lioni holds a Bachelors degree of Music and Masters degree of Music from The Julliard School where he was principal violist and teaching assistant to William Lincer. He has been a member of the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra since 1987. From 1983-1987 he was a member of the Detroit Symphony and he performed with the New York Philharmonic from 1981-1983. Mr Lioni has performed as the principal violist with the Santa Fe Opera and guest principal violist of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra. He has also been a member of the Casals Festival Orchestra, the Lyric Chamber Ensemble and the Renaissance City Chamber Ensemble.

A Brief History of the GWYOA

Mr. Harry Alshin, a string teacher in the Scarsdale school system, sowed the seeds for the GWYOA in 1955. Mr. Alshin first organized and conducted a countywide orchestra for junior high school students, preparing the young participants for the first youth orchestra which was established 2 years later.

The Youth Symphony, a high school age group, has had only 5 conductors since its inception. The longest tenure is held to date by Victor Lioni who took over the baton in 1970 and maintained it for 25 years. The current conductor, his son, Vincent Lioni, played viola with the GWYOA from the age 12 through high school. He conducted the Junior String Orchestra from 1990 until 1996 when he followed in his fathers footsteps and moved onto leading the Youth Symphony.

Maestro Alshin, the founder of the Junior String Orchestra remained with that group until he retired in the 1980's. Dale Lewis was the next conductor until Vincent Lioni came on board in 1990. The Elementary String Orchestra was organized in 1983 and was first conducted by Jacqueline Stern. She moved onto the Junior String Orchestra in 1996. It was at that time that Bernard Klinger joined the GWYOA as the conductor of the Elementary Strings.

During the early years, GWYOA was sponsored by Westchester County and rehearsals were held in the basement of the County Center. There was also a 6 week sleep away summer camp co-sponsored by the GWYOA and the county at Croton Point. Now, GWYOA is sponsored by Westchester Community College where weekly rehearsals are held and students can earn college credit for their participation.

Performance venues for the GWYOA have included: Carnegie Hall, Avery Fisher Hall @ Lincoln Center, Alice Tully Hall @ Lincoln Center, Kennedy Center, SUNY Purchase, NYSSMA State Conferences, Ellis Island, 1976 Bicentennial celebration in Philadelphia, and more recently the Maria Fareri Childrens Hospital.
