ABOUT THE CONDUCTORS

Bernard Klinger is a graduate of Hartt College of Music, from which he received bachelor's degrees in music education and viola performance. He also has a master's degree in music education from Columbia University Teachers College. Mr. Klinger currently teaches strings and orchestra at Holland Hill School in Fairfield, Connecticut. Previously, he taught strings and orchestra in the Chappaqua and White Plains School Districts for 33 years. He was principal violist in the Ridgefield Symphony (Connecticut) and currently plays viola in the Greenwich Symphony. A past president of the Westchester County School Music Association (WCSMA), he has also served as Elementary Festival coordinator, orchestra chairman, Elementary Orchestra conductor, certified NYSSMA adjudicator, and advisor to the board. Mr. Klinger has conducted the Elementary Strings since 1997.

Jacqueline Stern has a bachelor's degree in music education from Ithaca College and a master's degree in cello performance from the Manhattan School of Music. She currently conducts the orchestras at the Green Meadow Waldorf School. She is a performing cellist with the Hudson String Quartet and has performed with New York City Opera, the Artek Ensemble, and the Stamford Symphony. Ms. Stern joined the GWYOA as conductor of the Elementary Strings in 1983. She has been serving in her current role as conductor of the GWYOA Junior Strings since 1997.

Vincent J. Lioni holds a bachelor's degree in music and master's degree in music from The Juilliard School, where he was principal violist and teaching assistant to William Lincer. He has been a member of the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra since 1987. From 1983–1987 he was a member of the Detroit Symphony and he performed with the New York Philharmonic from 1981–1983. Mr. Lioni has performed as the principal violist with the Santa Fe Opera and guest principal violist of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra. He has also been a member of the Casals Festival Orchestra, the Lyric Chamber Ensemble, and the Renaissance City Chamber Ensemble. Mr. Lioni has had a long history with GWYOA, first as a student at age 12, through high school, and now as a conductor. He has led the Westchester Junior Strings and then the Westchester Youth Symphony for 16 years.

C. Victor Lioni was musical director and conductor of the Westchester Youth Symphony for 27 years until 1997. He has taught at Hartford High School, White Plains High School, and Kent State University. He was on the faculty of Westchester Community College for 25 years, serving as music curriculum chairman and remains as professor emeritus and adjunct professor of music. A graduate of the Eastman School of Music and Catholic University of America, Mr. Lioni has performed with the Rochester Philharmonic, the Hartford Symphony, the U.S. Marine Band in Washington, D.C., and as principal violist with the Greenwich Symphony. Mr. Lioni was music director of the Aaron Copland Music and Arts Program in Westchester County. He presently serves as coordinator and associate conductor for the GWYOA Youth Symphony.
