

A woman in a dark dress and high heels sits on a ledge, looking out at a large, illuminated fountain at night. The fountain's water jets are brightly lit, creating a large, glowing circular shape in the background. The woman is silhouetted against the bright light of the fountain. A handbag sits on the ledge next to her.

Meet the Conductors

Bernard Klinger

Bernard Klinger is a graduate of Hartt College of Music where he received bachelor's degrees in music education and viola performance. He has a master's degree in music education from Columbia University-Teachers College. Mr. Klinger taught strings and orchestra at Holland Hill School in Fairfield, Connecticut for five years. Before that he taught strings and orchestra in the Chappaqua and White Plains school districts for 33 years. He was principal violist in the Ridgefield, Connecticut Symphony, and currently plays viola in the Greenwich Symphony. A past president of the Westchester County School Music Association (WCSMA), he has also served as elementary festival coordinator, orchestra chairman, elementary orchestra conductor, and advisor to the board. Mr. Klinger has conducted the GWYOA Elementary Strings since 1997.

Jacqueline Stern

Jacqueline Stern has conducted the Junior Strings since 1996, before which she was the founding conductor of the Elementary Strings. She is also director of instrumental music at the Green Meadow Waldorf School, where she conducts the orchestras and teaches cello. Ms. Stern is an active orchestral and chamber music performer with many groups in the tri-state area, including the trio Terzetta, the Stamford Symphony, the Encore Chamber Players, Spirit (an improv group at Teachers College), and others. She has played baroque cello with the Artek Ensemble, Orchestra of the 18th Century, and New York Baroque. She has been an artist-fellow with the Bach Aria Festival and a full scholarship student at the Britten-Pears School for Advanced Musical Studies in England. She holds a bachelor of music degree from Ithaca College and a master of music degree from the Manhattan School of Music, where she was a Helena Rubinstein Foundation Scholar.

Vincent J. Lioni

Vincent J. Lioni holds bachelor's and master's degrees in music from the Juilliard School, where he was principal viola of the Juilliard Orchestra and teaching assistant to William Lincer. He has been a member of the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra since 1987. From 1983-87 he was a member of the Detroit Symphony, and he performed with the New York Philharmonic from 1981-83. Mr. Lioni has performed as the principal violist with the Santa Fe Opera and guest principal violist of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra. He has also been a member of the Casals Festival Orchestra, the Lyric Chamber Ensemble, and the Renaissance City Chamber Ensemble. Mr. Lioni has had a long history with the GWYOA, first as a student at age 12, through high school, and now as a conductor. He led the Westchester Junior Strings and became the conductor of the Westchester Youth Symphony in 1997.

C. Victor Lioni

C. Victor Lioni was musical director and conductor of the Westchester Youth Symphony for 27 years until 1997. He has taught at Hartford High School, White Plains High School, and Kent State University. He was on the faculty of Westchester Community College for 25 years, where he served as music curriculum chairman and remains professor emeritus and adjunct professor of music. A graduate of the Eastman School of Music and the Catholic University of America, Mr. Lioni has performed with the Rochester Philharmonic, the Hartford Symphony, the U.S. Marine Band in Washington, and as principal violist with the Greenwich Symphony. Mr. Lioni was music director of the Aaron Copland Music and Arts Program in Westchester County. He presently serves as coordinator and associate conductor for the GWYOA Youth Symphony.
